

Novel Antithrombotic Agents In Cardiovascular Medicine

Note:
Pre-registration required

Sarah Bush,, PharmD, BCPS
Vivian Carlson, PharmD
Josh Guffy, PharmD, BCACP, CDE
John Howard, PharmD, BCPS

March 3rd

8:00am-Noon

Greenville Memorial Hospital
Room CC2

Tuition:

GHS Employees—No Charge
SCSHP Members- No Charge
Others--$30

Pre-Registration is Mandatory
Due to Room Size
RSVP By February 29th to:
<http://ce.sccp.sc.edu/SCCP5108>

Educational Objectives:

Upon completion of this program, participants should be able to:

- Describe safety, primary literature, and clinical application of new antithrombotic medications
- Discuss specific use in atrial fibrillation, acute coronary syndromes, venous thromboembolism, and peri-operative management
- Apply knowledge to patient specific cases

Credits: 4 Hours ACPE
For Pharmacists

Target Audience: Pharmacists

This is a application-based CE program

Statement of Accreditation:
ACPE Program #0062-9999-12-039-L01-P

This program has been approved for 4.0 contact hours (0.40 CEUs). Attendance must be acknowledged at the registration desk upon arrival. Participants will complete the program evaluation on-line and then print their CE Statement.

The South Carolina College of Pharmacy is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) as a provider of Continuing Pharmacy Education.

Sponsored by:

Cosponsored by:

